Regulatory Analyst

The Pennsylvania Office of Consumer Advocate (OCA) seeks a full-time regulatory analyst. The OCA is an independent state agency and the statutory representative of Pennsylvania's consumers of regulated electric, gas, telephone, water and wastewater services. Regulatory analysts work with a staff of attorneys in advocating for the consumers' interests in state and federal proceedings. The scope of work will include, but not be limited to participating in complex litigation before the Public Utility Commission and federal regulatory commissions as well as issue analysis, and research and writing.

QUALIFICATIONS

- Experience or undergraduate degree in finance, accounting, or economics.
- Ability to work independently in a fast-paced and challenging environment.
- Strong oral and written communication skills.
- Interest in testifying in complex litigation before administrative agencies.

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS OF THE POSITION

- Review utility company filings with the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission (PAPUC) related to rate proceedings, and other petitions and applications.
- Prepare recommendations with respect to the office's involvement in such utility cases.
- Analyze the financial, economic, rate of return, and policy issues present in utility filings.
- Prepare written testimony and/or in-house reports and statistical schedules to be filed with the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission on behalf of the OCA with respect to the financial, economic, rate of return, and/or policy issues of utility filings.
- Attend administrative hearings on utility cases; assist with cross-examination of opposing party and/or other intervenors' witnesses; present oral testimony and submit to cross-examination of prefiled testimony.
- Review financial issues outlined in utility case briefs.
- Attend Public Input hearings and/or customer meetings related to utility cases as needed.
- Review written reports and/or testimony submitted by the OCA's outside consultants with respect to consistency of policy.

SALARY AND BENEFITS

- The salary for this position will generally depend on qualifications and experience level; however, the minimum salary is $43,834.
- Full-time employees receive all Commonwealth health (including dental and vision), pension and other benefits for management personnel.
